Collection of data relating to all officers and Government vehicles to be engaged for Election purposes

The Election Commission has taken steps to collect details of staff officers including all government officers who are expected to be engaged for duties at polling stations and counting duties and government vehicles which are to be used for election purposes at the forthcoming elections.

The said Commission has already issued necessary circular instructions and census forms required for the purpose.

As such you are kindly requested to take necessary steps forthwith to provide the Election Commission with the details requested as specifically instructed.

As Senior Government Officers, your special and personal supervision is required for this purpose and I expect your fullest cooperation for the above purposes.

P.B. Jayasundera
